GOVERNOR PROBES STATE CONTRACTS

Closely following Executive Councillor Daniel H. Coakley's charges of Republican-instigated favoritism in award of bonding business of state departments, Governor Saltonstall today ordered a sweeping check-up of all state department "contracts and amendments" to date.

Ostensibly an aftermath of the administration's investigation of Public Works Commissioner William F. Callahan's management of his department, today's move by the governor took the form of a two-sentence letter to State Comptroller George F. Murphy.

The letter instructed Murphy to issue an immediate order to all heads of departments requiring them forthwith to file with you all contracts and amendments thereto, irrespective of whether any requisition for payment has been made.

The Governor asked the comptroller to "let me know" when replies from all department heads had been received.

CHARGES FAVORITISM
Councillor Coakley's charges were made at yesterday's meeting of the executive council and were amplified later in a statement to the press.

Coakley asserted he had evidence that a group including Charles Nichols, executive secretary of the Republican state committee, and Elmer E. Nelson, personal secretary to the Governor, had requested Public Works Commissioner Callahan to give bonding and insurance business of his department exclusively to a "favored clique of Boston brokers."

Brokers' fees and commissions on this business were to be put into a pool to help defray Republican campaign expenses for 1940, Coakley claimed.

He said Callahan refused to bow to the demand made upon him, but heads of other state departments agreed to the suggested arrangement and put it into effect.

Coakley demanded full and public investigation of the alleged "favoritism."

There was indication that they would be Democratic party backers for such a probe, with a view to at least getting a public hearing before the legislature's joint rules committee.

PUSHES OUSTER MOVE
This, at least, would afford an opportunity for the siring of Democratic charges at the Republican administration.

Meantime, Governor Saltonstall made clear his intention of pressing his fight to oust Callahan, notwithstanding the Coakley counter-attack.

The governor said he had complete confidence in the integrity and ethical standard of all the men and women working in his office in an executive capacity.

His statement came after Coakley had shouted his accusations that the move against Callahan was a result of the latter's refusal to heed alleged dictates of G. O. P. leaders.

Lie Detector Tests In Baby Slayer Hunt

CLYDE, O., June 16 (AP)—Authorities turned to lie-detector tests today in their desperate hunt for clues leading to the slayer of 10-week-old Haldon "Buster" Fink, found in a nearby creek 12 hours after being snatched from his crib.

Earlier hopes that fingerprints might help in solving the case were virtually wiped out as experts reported no prints were found on the knob from the front door of the home where the child was stolen. Members of the family had been fingerprinted voluntarily. Sheriff H. L. Myers said at least 16 persons would be given the tests, including the baby's divorced mother, Mrs. Velma Baker Fink, 22; the father, Irving, 23; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Oran Baker, and other relatives and persons already questioned.

As Sheriff Myers emerged from a lengthy conference with Prosecutor A. L. Hyzer last night, he said: "There might be an arrest by tomorrow (Friday) night." Questioned about developments in the case, he added: "The outlook seems bright."

"There are a lot of loose ends to check yet," Hyzer commented.

FEAR FRENCH SUB SINKS, 60 ABOARD

LONDON, June 16 (INS)—The French submarine Phenix, carrying a crew of 60, has failed to reappear since making a dive 30 hours ago off the coast of French Indo-China, it was stated in a Reuter dispatch from Paris today.

A sister ship of the Phenix, the submarine Prometheus, sank off Cherbourg during trials in 1932 with the loss of 62 lives.

Submarines of this type, of which the French navy has about 30, usually carry 67 officers and men. Commissioned in April, 1930, the Phenix is 302 feet long, equipped with Diesel engines of 6000 horsepower, electric motors of 2600 horsepower and 10 torpedo tubes.

French Navy Waits Official News of Disaster

LONDON, June 16 (AP)—Reuters, British news agency, today published a Paris dispatch saying that, according to a telegram received from Saigon, the French submarine Phenix with 60 men aboard had failed to emerge 30 hours after a dive.

In Paris the French navy ministry said it had no information, and that it believed it would have heard of the report were true. Saigon is the capital of French Indo-China.

Britain Warns She Will Fight If Japs Tighten Blockade

LONDON, June 16 (AP)—The British government declared today that any attempts to restrict British rights in China would bring "immediate and active steps" by Britain.

The foreign office took the unusual step of issuing a communique to express concern over statements by Japanese spokesmen that Japan demanded "that the British authorities co-operate with the Japanese in the construction of a 'new order' in the East."

The communique said: "British circles cannot but take a most serious view of the further demands which have been made and which raise the widest issues affecting the rights of all those powers which have treaty rights in China."

They would mean the abandonment under threats of force

BULLETIN

TOKYO, June 16 (AP)—Japanese dispatches from Tientsin today said British authorities had ordered two naval vessels to leave from nearby ports with full loads of food for the Japanese-blockaded British concession at Tientsin. Dornel, Japanese news agency, asserted the British consul-general intended to have the food brought in as military supplies and then distribute it among residents of the blockaded concession.

of the policy which His Majesty's government have followed in the past, which is the same as that of other great powers with interests in the Far East."

The communique said the British offer to submit the dispute to a tribunal had not yet been withdrawn but added that "meanwhile far traver issues have been raised by statements emanating from local Japanese authorities in China."

"Recently," it said, "it may be recalled that the British and French governments had found it necessary to make representations to the department of foreign affairs in Tokyo regarding statements by a spokesman of the Japanese ministry for foreign affairs which seriously threatened treaty rights of foreign powers in China."

"Such statements have recently been challenged in an insinuating manner by Japanese spokesmen in Tientsin. It is clear from these statements that the sur- render of the four accused men is no longer regarded as the reason for imposition of the

F. D. SEES INCOME TAX RISE

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today the income tax structure would have to be broadened at the base, but he doubted if Congress would take any action this session.

Responding to questions at a press conference, the President said he believed the base should be broadened a little bit to cover more taxpayers, but he added this would not bring in much additional revenue.

(Broadening the base means to lower salary exemptions so that more individuals pay income taxes.)

Broadening, the President said, would give added responsibilities of citizenship to a group not now covered by tax laws.

PREDICTS BOOST
He also expressed the opinion income tax rates in the middle brackets probably should be raised a bit.

Mr. Roosevelt referred to what he termed silly and political editorials which suggested that lowering a single man's exemption from $1000 to $800 and a married man's from $2500 to $1200 would permit the government to pay off the national debt.

He contended the cost of collecting the revenues from the lower income groups as a result of broadening the tax base would be virtually equivalent to the new revenue brought in.

REPORT ON TAXES
About the time of the conference, the House ways and means committee voted to permit individuals and partnership as well as corporations to carry over net operating losses for income tax purposes for two years.

The committee also passed to the House without a record vote a measure which would repeal the present undistributed profits tax and levy an 18 per cent. tax on large corporations.

The committee also voted to make permanent in tax law a provision levying a 10 per cent. tax on the retail sales of sporting firearms, shells and cartridges.

The whole tax measure is expected to be called up for House debate on next Monday or Tuesday.

AWARD MANLEY CHILD TO DAD

In brief proceedings, custody of three-year-old Nancy Manley was restored to her father, Dr. Frederic N. Manley, prominent Quincy physician, by Judge Joseph R. McCoole in Dedham district court today.

The little girl was brought into court by Deputy Sheriff Joseph T. Hunter and was accompanied by her father and a nurse, all of whom returned with her from West Marlboro after Mrs. Theodora Manley had been served with papers in a writ of habeas corpus.

Dr. Manley told the court that he had agreed to allow his ex-wife, with whom he recently engaged in a sensational divorce battle, to take the child last May 15 for a two-weeks' vacation. When the time expired and she refused to return the little one, he obtained the writ.

Mrs. Manley, blonde and pretty, was a nurse at Quincy Hospital a few years back when she first met Dr. Manley, an interne there. Their romance resulted in marriage on Nov. 2, 1934, at Springfield. But the doctor said that while their relations were harmonious as doctor and nurse they were not so as man and wife. He filed suit for divorce in September, 1938, charging his wife with cruelty and asserting she "nagged and criticized" him so that his work as a physician was affected.

He won a divorce and custody of Nancy on May 21 last, but before the final decree was signed, Mrs. Manley made a surprise flight by airplane from Great Neck, L. I., to halt the decree for a time.

BATTLE for custody of 3-year-old daughter, Nancy, was waged today between Dr. Frederick N. Manley of Quincy and his divorced wife, Theodora (above).

Film Stars Tell Of Buckner Lobby

NEW YORK, June 16 (INS)—Frank Morgan, the actor, was cast in the role of lead-off man today for the parade of film stars corralled by the government to testify against William P. Buckner, Jr., and four co-defendants accused of promoting a million dollar mail fraud in Philippine railway bonds.

Herbert Marshall and Everett Crosby, a brother of Bing, were expected to follow Morgan.

The government expects the film stars to support its allegations that Buckner solicited funds in the Hollywood colony to pay the $30,000 it charges was demanded by Felipe Dueno, a Philippine legislator and co-defendant, to push legislation under which the Philippine assembly would purchase the bonds.

The legislation never went through but rumors concerning it circulated in Wall Street and, as a result, the bonds skyrocketed in value before doing a final nosedive.

Frank Morgan

McNUTT MENTIONED

The name of Paul V. McNutt, high commissioner of the Philippines, was added today to the list of political figures mentioned in the case.

Lee S. Walden, Canadian banker and former member of the bondholders' committee, identified a report sent by Buckner to the committee soon after his arrival in Manila.

In the letter he said that through McNutt's "courtesy" he was able to obtain access to various confidential reports of the U. S. army relating to personalities of certain Philippine officials as well as a study of the general Philippine psychology.

Postal inspectors attending the trial privately expressed doubts of the strict truth of the disclosures regarding McNutt. They told reporters that in their opinion the young bond salesman was "just boasting."

Another witness called for today was Carol Maurice, a showgirl, who was expected to give further details of the alcoholic parties allegedly staged by Buckner in Washington with the purpose of influencing legislators towards taking some step toward redemption of the bonds, according to the government.

LORETTA YOUNG WITNESS

Loretta Young, another film star with whom Buckner has been linked romantically, also may take the stand, perhaps for the defense. Her whereabouts were not known, but a report circulated that she

'Still Love Ruth,' Says 'Gimp' At Etting Heart Balm Trial

LOS ANGELES, June 16 (AP)—Martin Snyder, called "The Gimp" in the bright light sections of New York and Chicago, still carries the torch for his ex-wife, songbird Ruth Etting.

Facing 20 years in prison for shooting the blues singer's present husband, pianist Myrl Alderman, Snyder waited unwillingly today to testify in the $150,000 love theft suit of Alderman's first wife, Alma, against Miss Etting.

Buttonholing S. S. Hahn, attorney for blonde Alma Alderman, "The Gimp" remarked:

"Hey, Sammy! Don't go and put me on that there stand unless you have to. I still love the little lady, and I don't want to say anything which will jam her up."

The "little lady," it developed at his trial for wounding Alderman, is Miss Etting, whom he married and managed to theatrical success in the twenties.

Hahn indicated, however, that Snyder would take the stand as soon as Bernard Cohen, Miss Etting's counsel, concluded cross-examination of Mrs. Alderman.

Cohen injected a note of surprise into the proceedings yesterday by bringing up the name of a young woman, Dorothy Lamour.

"Isn't it true," he asked the complainant, "that you were so jealous of Mr. Alderman that you accused him of being familiar with Dorothy Lamour?"

"I should say not," was the indignant reply.

"Didn't you spend four or five days a week drinking in a bar and didn't you and Mr. Alderman quarrel because of your heavy drinking?" Cohen came back.

"No," she answered. "He was the heavy drinker."

"You didn't stagger into the lobby of the Columbia broadcasting studios, very drunk?"

"I certainly did not," she snapped, her eyes flashing.

LISSOM Dorothy Lamour (above) of sarong fame had her name drawn into the $150,000 love piracy suit of Mrs. Alma Alderman against Singer Ruth Etting.

Earlier she had described the pianist's affection for her and had told of an all-night vigil at the Hollywood Hills home where Alderman later was shot. She testified she watched Miss Etting and her husband enter the house about 11 o'clock at night and emerge after daylight.

Hahn introduced a letter he said his client received from Alderman while she awaited birth of their daughter, Norma Suzanne, now 20 months old. In part, it read:

"You loved me once and I am the same person now that I was then. You still think there is another woman, don't you? I don't know a woman that I'd give a damn for. I love you, have always loved you and guess I always will."

A few months later, in December, 1937, they were divorced. Alderman married Miss Etting last December 14, during Snyder's trial.

Slum Lottery For Chicago

CHICAGO, June 16 (INS)—Chicago today prepared to launch a slum-clearance-by-lottery under a plan approved, 89 to 21, last night by the lower legislative house at Springfield. State Senate approval of the measure is regarded as certain.

Tickets are to be sold in "housing corporations." Eighty-four per cent of the receipts are to be used for building houses and flats in blighted areas. Six per cent of receipts will go for expenses and 10 per cent will be distributed among lucky ticketholders.

Hub 'Golden Girl' to Wed Third Time

MURIEL PHELPS

Mrs. Muriel Vanderbilt Church Phelps, who once was hailed in Boston as society's Golden Girl, but forsook Newport for the Pacific Coast, will become Mrs. Melville Hall next month.

At her Carmel Valley, California, ranch home, the heiress confirmed the rumors that she would soon marry for the third time.

She added that the ceremony will probably take place in her California home and, furthermore, that her husband-to-be will transfer his business interests from New York and Greenwich Ct., to the Pacific Coast.

The Vanderbilt Church wedding, attended by the leaders of Boston and New York society, was the highlight of the 1925 season. Two years later the Churches separated—she charged non-support and won her divorce decree.

In another two years she had picked up the threads of a childhood romance with Henry Phelps, Providence and Newport banker. They had a simple civil marriage ceremony on the Manhattan, L. I.

REMEMBER DAD

Leaders Endorse Citizens' Day Fete

Never in the history of Boston has any patriot project met with such immediate and universal response as the New Citizens Day celebration to be staged coincidentally with Bunker Hill Day in Charlestown tomorrow afternoon.

Leaders of all political creeds, and in every walk of life, from the highest to the lowliest, are united in endorsement of this project of the Charlestown Post, No. 544, V. F. W. to honor adequately for once those young Bostonians of American parentage who, this year, have assumed the role of citizenship.

The patriotic event which will be staged on Bunker Hill monument grounds, takes place immediately following the climax of the huge military, naval and civic parade.

Martial music by massed bands, patriotic selections by members of the Yoke! Boys Chorus, numbering 50 voices, the pledging of allegiance to government of the United States by the young citizens and the massed singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," will combine to make the event a fitting climax to Bunker Hill Day observances.

The speakers include, Senator Lodge, Governor Saltonstall, Mayor Tobin, Congressman Thomas A. Flaherty, Attorney-General Dever, Postmaster Tague, Fire Commissioner Kelly, Police Commissioner Timilty, John E. Kerrigan, president, Boston City Council, Sheriff Dowd and City Councilor William J. Galvin, who will preside.

Robert Stanton of the Charlestown Post, V. F. W., will be in charge of arrangements at the monument grounds and will have direct charge of the reserved sections.

Attorney-General Dever, commenting on the new citizens dedication ceremony said:

"It is with great pleasure that I inform members of the Charlestown Post No. 544 V. F. W. and Chairman Thomas N. White of the Bunker Hill Day Celebration Committee that Young Citizens Day celebration at the Bunker Hill monument is of historical significance, especially at this time.

"Attainment of one's majority was never a more important event than it is today. This troubled world needs the fresh outlook of youth, sobered and seasoned by young maturity. It is a grand thing to be a citizen of the United States where the voice of youth is listened to and where free citizenship is a reality.

"I am proud to participate in this event. While we all, during our lives, celebrated our birthdays as the privilege of being born, so, too, should we celebrate citizenship day as the privilege of living."

FALLS KILL BABY BOY, INJURE 3

A baby boy lay dead today, crushed by a fall on the steaming West End pavements. A slightly older brother, hurtling with him through a weakened window screening, was seriously hurt.

Two other children, one in Charles street and the other in Jamaica Plain, were injured in similar falls in the last few hours.

The brothers, James Consolino, 2½, and Joseph, 4, of Ashland st., were playing on a couch near a window, while their mother, Mrs. Mary Consolino, sat nearby feeding their one-year-old brother, Richard.

Suddenly the screening gave way beneath their weight, plunging them headlong out the window.

At Massachusetts General Hospital James was pronounced dead upon arrival. Physicians said that Joseph had suffered crushed ribs, internal injuries and possible fracture of the skull.

In a similar accident, Theresa Donaldson, three, of Rockview st., Jamaica Plain, suffered critical injuries when she fell from a third floor window of her home. Her fall was broken by a telephone wire. At City Hospital she was treated for fractured hip, broken leg and brain concussion.

Losing his balance as he was walking along the top of a brick wall at the dead end of St. Charles st., Raymond Walling, five, of Chandler st., South End, tumbled 30 feet into the railroad yards.

Responding to the hysterical crying of his playmates, police rushed him to City Hospital, where physicians said he had suffered a compound fracture of the skull and internal injuries.

Parochial Schools End Term for 31,000

Boston's 45 parochial schools, with 31,000 students, closed today for the summer. Graduation exercises for many of them are scheduled for Sunday.

Young Citizens' Special Section

Members of the Bunker Hill Day celebration committee and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, sponsors of the Young Citizens' Day ceremonies at Bunker Hill monument grounds tomorrow, today requested that all American-born young men and women who have attained the age of 21 during the past year, assemble at the bandstand immediately following the finish of the parade.

A special section has been reserved for the young citizens, and members of the V. F. W. will be on the monument grounds to direct those participating to their section.

Young Citizen Day on Radio

A description of the patriotic scene and addresses of prominent national, state and city leaders at the Young Citizens' Day exercises on Bunker Hill monument grounds tomorrow afternoon will be broadcast throughout New England by Station WORL from 5:30 to 6 p. m. Gordon Wayne, noted radio announcer and commentator, will broadcast a description of the impressive ceremonies dedicated to the young men and women of New England who have attained the age of 21 during the year.

Oratory to Rule At Night Before

LEGION WOMEN

All the heroism and glory of the bitter battle which a ragged army of colonial militia staged against the scarlet troops of Britain 164 years ago will be recalled tonight in oratory and celebrations as Charlestown hails the coming of another June 17th Bunker Hill Day.

Like the signal fires of old which called the soldiery together from surrounding farm countries, bonfires will blaze tonight. Musket fire and cannonading of a century and a half ago will re-echo in the explosion of fireworks.

Thousands of citizens will gather at "Night Before" banquets to praise the courage of those patriots who fought for American freedom and to pledge themselves to preserving the tradition of liberty.

The State armory will be the scene of a huge community banquet and simultaneously the Bunker Hill Council, K. of C., will stage a celebration in its hall. Bunker Hill Post, American Legion, likewise will hold a banquet.

Dignitaries of state and city will speak at both banquets. They include Gov. Leverett Saltonstall, Mayor Maurice J. Tobin, Congressman Thomas A. Flaherty, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and David I. Walsh, Atty.-Gen. Paul A. Dever, Postmaster Peter F. Tague, Police Commissioner Joseph E. Timilty, and others.

At the K. of C. banquet Cornelius R. Cotter has been selected by Grand Knight William A. Magner to respond to the toast, "The Day We Celebrate." Henry P. Walsh is in charge of entertainment and will present several well-known Boston radio artists.

The climax of the celebration on Saturday will be the big parade, with more than 11,000 marchers in line. Chief Marshal Daniel J. Coughlin has announced that Secretary of the Navy Claude A. Swanson has assigned five warships to Charlestown for the holiday observance. The parade starts at 2:30 p. m. at Mystic and Bunker Hill streets.

Following the parade there will be a patriotic meeting at the Bunker Hill monument grounds, with tribute paid to the young citizens of Boston.

Navy School Prejudice Probed

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 16 (INS).—Naval authorities announced they have launched a full investigation of reports a midshipman at the naval academy, Jay Einstein, had been advised to change his name because a Jewish surname might hinder his navy career.

An aide to Rear Admiral Wilson Brown, commandant of the academy, declared the inquiry was ordered by Admiral Brown, but thus far had resulted in no evidence to substantiate the report the youth's superior officers had so advised him.

Questioning has shown, however, the official said, that Einstein, now en route to Canada on a midshipman's summer cruise, had asked his battalion officer about procedure in changing his name, and was advised to make his request to the Navy Department.

The investigation is expected to remain incomplete until the youth's return to the academy several weeks hence. In its announcement, the office of Admiral Brown expressed regret the incident became known, but declared no racial prejudice would be allowed in the naval academy.

Habelow's Case Placed on File

Although it was reported through error that Arthur Habelow, who pleaded guilty to gambling charges in the Revere cases, last Tuesday was fined $50, it was revealed today that Habelow's case was placed on file.

The $50, which Habelow was given until tomorrow to raise, represented an assessment for expenses, and was not a fine, it was pointed out.

Two fines were meted out—one of $500 paid by Nicholas Gaeta, brother of the slain Revere gambler whose murder initiated the investigation, and one of $450 paid by Charles Shuman.

War on Twin Dangers, Legion Women Are Told

Warning of the dangers to America of class and race hatreds, State Commander James Maguire of the American Legion urged 900 delegates of the Legion Auxiliary, gathered today at the 20th annual convention in the New Ocean House, Swampscott, to battle the twin dangers with vision and common sense.

Delegates voted today for the ensuing year's officers.

"Although the country is still secure in peace, the problems of preserving peace are most difficult," said Maguire. "Foes of all kinds and character must be eliminated."

"The American flag can be torn down by the forces that seek to destroy this country with doctrines of class and race hatred, unless the battle against them is fought with intelligent vision and common sense."

"The American Legion is the greatest stabilizing force in the world and can safeguard the interests of the United States by arousing public opinion to its dangers. In order to secure the country from foreign entanglements we must first secure her from those forces which would attempt to destroy her from within."

Maguire described the auxiliary as the right arm of the ill and wounded veterans of the World War.

FIREMAN RECOVERING

2 Girls, 3 Men Try to Kill Officer in Roxbury Battle

Revolvers blazed in Roxbury early today as two mysterious attempts were made by two girls and three men to kill Patrolman John Barrett, attached to Roxbury Crossing station.

The girls and their escorts first attempted to run down the officer with a taxicab they were using.

A short time later, when he again came upon the taxicab with license plates covered by newspapers, a shot was fired at him and he returned the fire as he lay on the pavement after having been pushed off the cab.

Today police were making an exhaustive inspection of taxicabs in belief that the bullet fired by Patrolman Barrett, 20 years old and one of the last group of appointees to the department, struck the auto.

Barrett, who lives in L street,

South Boston, could give no reason for the apparent attempts on his life, except that he may have balked holdup plans.

In the faint night light he was unable to distinguish clearly, he said, the faces of the murderous persons in the taxicab, which apparently was stolen. He said one of the men was driving.

The first attempt on Patrolman Barrett's life was while he was walking his beat on the Roxbury end of Longwood avenue, not far from Roxbury Crossing.

This was near Parker street, Barrett said, and he barely leaped aside in time as the cab swerved toward him. It was then he saw both license plates were concealed with newspaper.

He had been trying doors in Longwood avenue, he said, when he saw the cab approach, with headlights extinguished. He stepped into the street with raised hand, but instead of stopping, the cab veered at him and he had barely time to leap back.

Barrett ran toward the station house to report the attack, but stopped when he sighted the cab parked under the railroad bridge in Roxbury Crossing.

WOMAN IN CASE

A woman and a man had snatched from the cab as the officer walked quietly to the running board. The motor was still running.

Leaping to the running board, Patrolman Barrett ordered the driver to step out, but the cab leaped into motion and turned in a wide sweep. Barrett was pushed to the pavement and as he rolled over one shot was fired, passing a foot from his face.

Barrett's return fire is believed to have struck the cab's right fender.

Police rushed from the station house at sound of the shots, but the cab had gone down Columbus avenue toward Egleston square and the couple had vanished.

Immigration 'Expert' Held

Termed by police as a self-appointed immigration expert who charged a $300 fee to bring an Italian immigrant into the country through "the influence of United States Senator David I. Walsh," today was held in $1000 bail in Dorchester court on a larceny charge.

Police charged that John L. Cappazoli, 48, of Whitten street, Dorchester, promised Joseph Dimasico of Dorchester to bring a relative into the country in return for a $300 fee.

Dimasico had Cappazoli arrested on a larceny charge after the latter had collected $150 of the fee and had failed to arrange the admission of Dimasico's relative.

The case was continued until June 30 for disposition.

Mountain Laurel Day

Mountain Laurel Day will be observed in the Blue Hills Sunday afternoon when nature enthusiasts take part in a program sponsored by the WPA-MDC Recreation Division.

The walk will start at 2:30 p. m. from Randolph avenue and Chickatawut road, Milton, and the special goal will be the hillside of beautiful mountain laurel near Great Cedar Swamp and Barbary-bush Spring, the only native laurel planting in the vicinity. Harry George Higbee, staff naturalist and conservationist, will discuss wild flowers.

The expedition is open to the public.

O'Brien Sentencing Postponed a Week

Sentencing of former Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere on a jury conviction charging embezzlement of $13,277.64 while he was Revere's city treasurer, was postponed until next Friday by Suffolk County Superior Court Judge Lewis Goldberg. O'Brien was later declared innocent by juries in three gambling conspiracy trials.

BURNED BY DRILL

Critically burned when a drill they were operating struck an underground high-tension electric cable, Paul Fanco, 58, and Guy Ciccarello, 48, both of High street, Salem, were reported in "fair" condition today at Salem Hospital.

BOYS GRAB $2000 DIAMONDS

The crash of glass, followed by the strident cry of "top thief!" startled a Tremont street shopping crowd around 11 o'clock today when two boys, dressed in dungarees, smashed the window of the Hegan-Kip Company, jewelers, 162 Tremont street, and escaped with a tray of diamond rings valued at $2000.

The boys, neither apparently older than 17, tossed a cloth-covered rock through the window, seized the tray and fled.

One was lost in the crowd almost at once. The other darted down Avery street, through Washington street and to Boylston street, where he too managed to get away.

So quickly did it all happen that few realized what was going on.

One boy was described as having light curly hair, the other as wearing a yellow shirt.

Groton Gives 30 Diplomas

GROTON, June 16 (AP)—Thirty students, including George Lee Peabody, son of Bishop Malcolm Peabody of Western New York and grandson of Dr. Endicott Peabody, headmaster, were given diplomas today at the 55th commencement of Groton school.

The principal speakers were Arnold Whitridge, master of Calhoun College, Yale; Bishop Emeritus William L. Lawrence of Boston and Joseph C. Grew, ambassador to Japan.

Dr. Peabody presented the diploma. He will retire next year and be succeeded by the Rev. John Crocker of Princeton University. Among the honor students was David Campion Acheson, son of Dean G. Acheson, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Indict Prisoner On Bribe Charge

Emmanuel (Manny) Schwartz, 38, of Floyd street, serving a sentence of one year and a day in Plymouth jail on liquor charges, was again secretly indicted by the federal grand jury on June 2 for allegedly endeavoring to obstruct justice by the payment of $100 to Francis McNamee, a government witness against him and others in the Mattapan $100,000 still case, it was learned today.

The secret indictment was made public by Assistant U. S. Attorney Robert W. Meserve.

At the trial of Schwartz and nine others before Judge Hugh D. McLeelan recently, McNamee testified he was in a restaurant in Blue Hill avenue, Mattapan, when Schwartz approached him with an offer of a bribe to keep away from the trial. McNamee said Schwartz put two $50 bills in his pocket with instructions to leave town and not testify.

Spoke to Juror, Faces Sentence

Admitting himself in contempt of court by reason of having spoken to a juror in a criminal case, Ernest J. Fortin of Pequot street, Roxbury, was told today for sentence October 4.

Judge Paul G. Kirk released him on his own recognizance.

Fortin caused a mistrial in the case of Robert W. Coffie of Bismark street, Mattapan, in Suffolk Superior criminal court accused of driving so as to endanger.

Juror David G. Alexander of Circuit street, Roxbury, reported that Fortin had made a remark to him at recess, assailing credibility of a government witness.

MODIFY WPA CUT IS PLEA

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A possibility of cutting the federal work program (WPA) by $175,000,000, which would mean a reduction of 100,000 jobs, was a subject of discussion today in the House of Representatives.

In the House of Representatives today, many of the proposals to modify the program were introduced. The House is expected to vote on the program by July 1.

RIVER LEAP PUTS END TO TRIAL
Next Census to List All Working Wives

"If you press me too far I'll run away—or jump the river!"

So did Arthur Manogue, three weeks out of the Hotel Wamsutter, when sentenced recently in Roxbury to a suspended charge, for trial by Mrs. Theodore Manogue of Devon Street, Brookline.

There was no longer a body to give it, here, then back in court but instead he was taken out of the chamber door and to the outside.

Manogue, 32, was charged with the murder of his wife and son, two children, Catherine, 1, and Alexander, 18. There are two other sons, William, 20, and George, 24.

The trial, however, was taken Judge Donald A. Hendon, and after a few preliminary cases was postponed. District Officer John L. Spence to Manogue in an effort to smooth out the difficulty, but he was bitter and obdurate.

Manogue saw him poised on the sill of the Harvard bridge, the morning before they could pass, even if he had leaped into the water.

The body was identified at the Northern Burial by William, one of the elder sons, and police sent to Roxbury court to close the case.

Working wives and their husbands all over the United States will be obliged to put themselves on record in the 1940 national census. Miss Florence Birmingham, president of the Massachusetts Women's Political Club, announced today.

It was a successful first week in passing the Women's Political Club of the U. S. Census Bureau to compile the 1940 census questionnaire. The census is gathering data on employment in public service and private industry.

WIVES WORKING WIVES
Miss Birmingham, who organized her campaign to pass the census on a national basis, said Massachusetts' fight against public employment of wives with husbands able to support them.

A legislative bill sponsored by Miss Birmingham, which would ban women's groups, is now pending in Massachusetts. It would prohibit married women with dependent husbands holding jobs in the public service.

LIST JOBS, SALARIES
Mrs. Birmingham said census takers will ask her husband's name, whether your wife is employed.

and if so, where and at what salary?

All U. S. wives will be asked, "Are you a working wife?" If so, are you employed in public or private service?

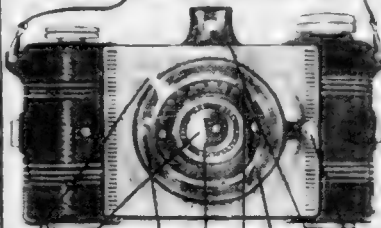

In a letter sent to all Massachusetts congressmen and senators, Miss Birmingham charged the story of Lady Frances Perkins, her assistant, Mary Anderson, with spreading propaganda with but one aim—holding financially independent women in government jobs.

11,000,000 in U. S. Now on 40-Hr. Week

GENEVA, June 16 (AP)—Charles V. McLaurin, United States Assistant Secretary of Labor and American government delegate to the International Labor Conference, said today the 40-hour week would have been extended to 11,000,000 workers in the United States under the new wage and hour law.

PATRIARCA

Raymond E. S. Patriarca, storm center of the Massachusetts "parade racket" racket, was out of a jail after being freed on $10,000 bail supplied by a woman in Brighton court.

C. Williams, District Judge, pleaded guilty to racketeering and assault with intent to murder in connection with a June kidnapping at the Ocean State Hotel in 1937.

Williams, who is charged with the kidnapping of a woman, was released on bail after a hearing in the Superior Court. The bail was set at $10,000, and was provided by a woman who is believed to be a close associate of Patriarca.

Halt Bill to Insure Alien Ships in War

Special to Boston Evening American
WASHINGTON, June 16—A drastic bill, under the terms of which the United States Treasury could underwrite war losses to the British Merchant Marine in time of war, and which it was intended to report to the House without public hearings, has been brought to a stop in both branches of Congress pending investigation.

If enacted into law, it would commit the American government to a new international policy which would virtually make the United States the war risk insurer of European belligerent nations under the guise of a war-risk insurance plan for foreign vessels. The government had during the World War, when it was itself engaged in that war as an associated power.

NEW DEAL MEASURE
So far as the measure is concerned, it is a new deal measure, which would insure the ships of the United States against war risks. It would also insure the ships of other nations against war risks. The measure was introduced in the House on May 31 by Representative Bland and in the Senate by Senator Bailey on June 7. It was a measure which would insure the ships of the United States against war risks.

Flay State Troopers In 'Doll Girl' Death

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., June 16—High-handed activities by the state constabulary in investigating the shooting by Corporal Ben Franklin of Thomas and John Stevens, Massachusetts school pupil, known as the "doll girl," may lead to a special inquiry on charges of suppression of evidence. It was said here today as a charged state constabulary continued its own inquiry.

Suppression means the state has been nearly 24 hours, and some say more, in investigating the shooting. Mrs. John Stevens, mother of the "doll girl," said today that although Mrs. Stevens stood in the road when the shooting took place, she did not see the state trooper who fired the shot. She said she saw the state trooper who fired the shot, but she did not see the state trooper who fired the shot.

Following the shooting, the Stevens family was taken to the hospital. The Stevens family was taken to the hospital. The Stevens family was taken to the hospital.

Baseball Player Hit by Golf Ball May Lose an Eye

MONTEPHER, Vt., June 16 (AP)—Chasing a foul fly during a baseball game today, William Callaway, 16-year-old high school senior, suffered an injury which may cost him an eye when struck by a golf ball.

A golf course adjoins the ball field.

Doctors said it would be two or three weeks before it could be determined if the youth would lose the eye.

'Dying' Woman Tells Of N.Y. Fair Thrills

Mrs. Jill Taylor of Georgia, sentenced to death by her physicians who said they did not believe she would live after she had undergone a serious operation, braved their warnings and went to the New York World's Fair to see the sights—even though she had to see them from an ambulance window. Here is her own story of her impressions as dictated by her to Ruth Campbell, Atlanta Georgian staff writer.

By MRS. JILL TAYLOR

(As dictated to Ruth Campbell)
NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR: June 15. Coming to New York as an invalid who cannot get up might seem a hardship to some, but it has not been to me. It has become pleasant and exciting.

The trip on the train, in fact, was a pleasant surprise. I could get out and see the sights and the people, and the excitement was so great that I forgot my condition.

The trip to the fair was a great experience. I had never been to a fair before, and I was so excited that I forgot my condition.

I had never been to a fair before, and I was so excited that I forgot my condition. I had never been to a fair before, and I was so excited that I forgot my condition.

I had never been to a fair before, and I was so excited that I forgot my condition. I had never been to a fair before, and I was so excited that I forgot my condition.

SEES FAIR FROM STRETCHER—A firm believer in "where there's a will there's a way," advised Mrs. Jill Taylor of Atlanta, Ga., determined to visit the New York World's Fair on Georgia Day, despite a recent major operation. She managed to get there... on a stretcher. Nurse Irene Browne attended her.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE By Damon Runyon

We note in the public prints that the folks who are running the New York World's Fair are somewhat concerned about the lack of public attendance and are wondering why. Apparently they have not had our advantage of listening to all the champion second guessers in the city.

The second guessers are the fellows who will tell someone of more change and initiative. He made a plan to go to work and if the plan does not pan out as expected, the second guessers tell you what was wrong. There are more second guessers in New York city than in any other similar city in the world.

We thought there was nothing wrong with the World's Fair that cannot be remedied by a few quick moves. The fair is a great success. The second guessers are the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure. They are the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure. They are the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure.

How many of them are there? To keep running. It is the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure. They are the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure. They are the fellows who will tell you that it is a failure.

As for the fellows who are running the New York World's Fair, they are the fellows who are running the New York World's Fair. They are the fellows who are running the New York World's Fair. They are the fellows who are running the New York World's Fair.

Clear Harvard Youth In 'Jungle Murders'

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 15 (AP) Police cleared William James Dickey, sometime brilliant student of Stanford and Harvard Universities, in the investigation of the "jungle" murders of three sleeping men in a San Jose hotel, the slaying of an unidentified person.

The victim's body was found in a room at the Southwestern Hotel, San Jose, June 14.

Agnes M. Higgins, attorney, and David H. Hays, a writer, of the morning papers, had charged him 48 hours after the murder.

Dickey, 25, was a student at Stanford University, and was in San Jose on a vacation.

Demands against the British concession

The communique was issued as the Japanese ultimatum to China continued, with the Japanese army backing the British and French concessions in Tientsin.

Jap Blockaders Kill 2, First Bloodshed in Tilt

TIENTSIN, June 16.—(AP) Two Chinese boarding boats into the British concession were reported shot dead this morning by Japanese guards blocking the foreign ships to permit demands for British cooperation in China.

The incident occurred near Tientsin station where Japanese forces were reported to be making a last-minute effort to prevent the British and French from evacuating their troops from the city. The Japanese government has announced that it has decided to take no further action in the Tientsin incident, but that it will continue to demand the British and French to evacuate their troops from the city.

Britain Due to Bow To Japan to Block Hitler War Alliance

By H. R. KNICKERBOCKER

International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, June 16.—In a desperate attempt to prevent Japan from joining the German-Italian military alliance, Great Britain will bow to local Japanese demands and withdraw four Chinese prisoners held by British authorities in Tientsin, it was understood in Paris today.

It is the threat of Japanese admission to the Axis military alliance that moves the Tientsin incident a matter of grave international importance.

Without formal American support for any more determined stand at Tientsin, according to a view privately expressed by the French today, the British will have no alternative but to surrender the prisoners.

PERIS SOVIET FACT

The view emphasizes the fact that Washington is the center of pressure on Japan to withdraw its troops from Tientsin, and that the United States is determined to force Japan to do so.

The Japanese government has announced that it has decided to take no further action in the Tientsin incident, but that it will continue to demand the British and French to evacuate their troops from the city.

By BETTY ALDEN

WITH a daughter of Boston as bride and a bridegroom from the North Shore, the family playing the leading role at a wedding in Kins Chapel, the ceremony was a most successful one. The bride is Mary, eldest Frothingham daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chauncey Frothingham of Bay State road and her bridegroom is Charles Jackson Jr. son of the Charles Jackson of Dover.

A pair of lovely girls, the bridesmaid and her mother's wedding veil of tulle, bordered with family lace, fashions the bride's costume, and she is carrying lilacs of the valley and carnations. Her sister, Virginia, has made of honor a wedding a gown of chartruse net, with braided net forming the bodice and sleeves, and the six bridesmaids are wearing similar gowns of hyacinth blue net, with matching hats and bouquets of summer flowers. The bridesmaid group includes Elizabeth and Margaret Jackson, sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Chauncey Frothingham, Dr. Mrs. Richard T. Flood, Mrs. Lawrence H. H. H. of Boston, and L. H. H. of Baltimore.

James M. Jackson, the bride's best man, and there are eight ushers. The reception is at the Frothingham residence.

BETTY LOVEJOY BARBARA PHIPPEN

TWO of the North Shore's pretty debutantes are Betty Lovejoy and Barbara Phippen who are having a busy time attending all the June festivities. Miss Lovejoy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovejoy of Swampscott while Miss Phippen's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Walter G. Phippen of Salem.

Happy Couple

MOST BRIDES and bridegrooms are pretty self-conscious and formal as they exchange their vows before a church full of guests but at their wedding ceremony in Emmanuel yesterday noon Rosamond Pier and William Hunt were so happy and oblivious of everyone else in the church that they afforded the guests a lot of good-natured amusement.

Instead of standing tensely with his best man, Bill caught Rosie's eye as she came up the aisle and smiled broadly. From then on they were smiling at each other so much it was surprising that they heard the Rev. Phillips Osgood enough to give the proper responses.

They were just beaming when they came back down the aisle and everyone got such a kick out of watching them that they forgot the customary "Wasn't she a lovely bride?" and exclaimed instead, "They certainly are a happy couple!"

In the distinguished gathering which packed the church were Mrs. Robert Saltun of Milton, dressed in summery gray and white print, with a gray picture hat; Mrs. Henry Tudor, whose becoming white hat was trimmed with dusty blue velvet and a blue veil tied in back, and Mrs. Daniel Sargent of Needham, in a lovely ensemble of dusty pink sheer wool with a matching turban. She was accompanied by her pretty little daughter, Louise.

The newly engaged Marian Leeson received best wishes on all sides as she strolled over the broad lawns at the Pier home in Milton, where the outdoor reception was held, and Faith Barney, another bride-to-be, wore a green linen dress, appropriately printed with white hearts. Phyllis Motley, Frances Hovey, Mrs. Nicholas Danforth, Mimi Little, Peggy and Ann Capper, Frances Lowell, Olivia Osborne and Anne Peabody were just a few of Rosie's Junior League and Vincent pals who attended the ceremony.

Leaves From a Society Editor's Notebook

The Bob Parkinsons, Dorothea Dean, stepped ashore from their honeymoon yacht yesterday at Cohasset, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Thomas P. Mandell of Hamilton and Marion "Boots" Williams of Boston are seeing the sights at the World's Fair together this week.

Enjoying a bit of roof top dining and dancing in a foursome at the Hotel Sheraton the other evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chaffoux, with their son, Francis, and Lucile Swift. At a nearby table Agnes Osborne made a lovely picture with her fair hair enhanced by a white chiffon gown trimmed with diagonal bands of black lace and a flame eash. She was in a party with Joan Sagendorph and two dinner jacketed escorts.

Webb-Eaton Ceremony

Isabella Eaton of Concord and John Griswold Webb of Wilton, are another society bride and bridegroom who have contributed to the marriage register's big increase in business this month. They are being married this afternoon in the First Parish Meeting House in Concord, with a reception at the Concord Country Club. The attractive bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall Eaton of Concord, wearing ivory satin and Brussels lace for "something borrowed" she is wearing the wedding veil of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. Griswold Webb of Wilton and Hyde Park, N. Y.

The bride has three attendants, Margaret Eaton, Jeanne Clark and Leila Webb. Their gowns of ivory taffeta are fashioned with organdie bodices and they are wearing leghorn hats trimmed with velvet ribbons to match their bouquets of African daisies.

Gordon Auchincloss, 2d, of New York is best man and the ushers include several of the bridegroom's fellow members of the graduating class at Yale.

Following a honeymoon in Bermuda the couple will live on Beacon Hill.

ARISTOS CLUB ENDS SEASON WITH DANCE

Final event on the Aristos Club's calendar for the season will be an elaborate dancing party at Seller's Ten Acres this evening. The gay affair is under the chairmanship of Blanche Marvin of Medford, Gertrude Meany, Mrs. Cummings of Medford, and Mary Magill of Somerville.

Long-Kelley Ceremony Tomorrow

The wedding of Miss Long-Kelley and Mr. Kelley will take place tomorrow at the First Parish Meeting House in Concord. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Long-Kelley of Concord and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley of Concord. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Phillips Osgood. The bridesmaids are Miss Long-Kelley, Miss Kelley, and Miss Long-Kelley. The groomsmen are Mr. Long-Kelley, Mr. Kelley, and Mr. Long-Kelley. The reception will be at the Long-Kelley residence.

MT. ST. JOSEPH PRIZES AWARDED

Graduates of the Mount St. Joseph Academy in Boston have received their prizes for the current year. The prizes were awarded by the Rev. Father [Name] of the academy. The prizes included books, stationery, and other school supplies. The graduates were praised for their hard work and dedication throughout the year.

ON 14th, enthusiastic committee working for the success of the Aristos Club has chosen this evening at Seller's Ten Acres as Mary Magill of Somerville.

"It was a pretty little thing anyway. Day amended quickly. "It's a good thing," said Mrs. York, "but I wasn't asked to. I haven't got time to do other people's weddings, either. And may I ask what you'd like for your money? Did you have a card for me?"

HERE HE COMES—THERE HE GOES—Sidney Wooderson's racing stride is shown graphically in this series of action pictures, taken at Princeton where he's favored in the Mile of the Century tomorrow. No. 1, first stride after start; 2, getting into full swing. 3, effortless skip and 4, complete motion. He's not exactly a picture of grace, but his racing form appears effortless, and that's what counts.

Austen Lake: Athletes to Broadcast While They Perform

Taunton Dog Track Opens

By THE RABBIT

TAUNTON, June 14 (T. R.)—The opening of the Taunton Dog Track, which has been the subject of much discussion for some time, took place last night. The track, which is located on the Taunton River, is the largest of its kind in the state. It is owned by the Taunton Dog Track Association, which was organized last year. The track is expected to be a great success and to attract many visitors.

'MICKEY' COCHRANE

Read What John Kieran, famous Sports writer,
says about it

"This is the best book on baseball that I ever read. But that's a minor point. Because it is more than a deeply instructive and highly entertaining volume on our national pastime. It's a story, a story of a man whose personality and career have been the object of wonder and admiration of millions of our citizens, young and old."

"It is a lesson to those of us who still may profit by the example set by a man of courage and determination. It will be an inspiration to young readers who, in the pages, will learn how a young fellow, by intelligence, industry and dogged persistence, fought his way to the top of his chosen profession."

Sox Lack '38 Zip; Nose-dive Likely

By JOE CASHMAN

This mid-June day finds the second-place Red Sox 10 games back of the front-running Yanks, or one game farther removed from the attic than they were when they followed the champs across the wire last fall.

The Sox have been sitting on the bench since the beginning of the season, and it is that the team has yet to get into the ballpark class they displayed last fall.

PALMER NINE DUELS NORWOOD FOR TITLE

Plans for the wholesale evacuation of the state of Norwood and Palmer were under way today.

The exodus was outlined as the result of these two communities prepared to follow their respective high school baseball teams in the National League field tournament for the state championship. A competing Palmer club was expected to face a Norwood team in the Western Massachusetts League which carried the club to the eastern championship.

Weymouth Angler Lands 7 Lb. Trout In Tidal Waters

By DARK MONTREAL

John Allen sends word from the Wewantit that a Mr. Cranton of Brockton took a 10-pound striped bass, best reported on the river this season. Dr. Smith of Randolph took eight nice fish, all between five and seven and a half pounds. Captain John reports that the run is not heavy right now, but the fish using the river are all good ones.

Cliff Farrand passes along a story that a seven-pound, 14-ounce brown trout was caught in the North River, in tidal waters, on Friday, June 9, by James F. Stearns, of Weymouth.

Dave Aylward, secretary of the Massachusetts Fish & Game Association, and president of National Wildlife Federation, is headed for Oregon and the Bonneville dam to study the methods adopted to care for the salmon run, now a cause of controversy between conservation and federal agencies. He will also attend the San Francisco meeting of the American Fisheries Commission and the Migratory Bird Treaty Board.

After what I wrote about bass on the spawning beds hitting at everything except above covers, word comes from Dick Reed that it "just ain't so" during the present Maine fishing. For instance, Dick relates, Ed Place, the Boston angler, tossed 21 different flies over a big bass fanning in the shoals of Anasagutcook and could not get a rise.

Knowing Ed's capability with a rod, I know those flies were well presented. Also, Dick continues, Dr. W. H. Gussman of Medford, took 19 nice fish, on one special fly in Round Pond, while six others fishing the same water with other flies took a total of only three bass.

Oh, well, the exceptions only prove the rule. And what was Dr. Gussman's fly?

Benny's river is producing on an average of one bright salmon per day to the rods working that water. That is, fish killed; two or three times that number are hooked and lost. China lake, near Augusta, Me. (one of my favorite big-bass waters) is producing some grand landlocked salmon fishing right now. One 13-pounder, two tens and many fish above seven pounds have been recorded. Chinook salmon were well stocked there.

(Note to Dick Reed: It was in China that I saw old George McIntyre, a fine guide off East pond, demonstrate the art of taking a male bass on a bare hook from a spawning bed.)

E. A. Hathaway, Dorchester engineer, who has fished Great Pond in the Belgrade for a quarter century, has decided to combine business and pleasure and is operating the Jamaica Point camps. . . .

Gene Muller of Braintree, celebrated Father's Day prematurely on Wednesday by taking a two-pound rainbow trout at Long Pond in the presence of his son. Just by way of showing the coming generation how the trick is done, Lu Weil and Craig Grenier, Boston advertising agency man, had a nice catch of salmon and trout at Haines Landing, Mooselookungatic.

Bill Laubenstein of Hingham, with sons George and Bill, had great sport fly-fishing for bass on Lake Kewamund, Me., over last week. They did a little salmon fishing but Dad Laubenstein reports the big bass were biting so furiously that the expedition put in most of its time fly fishing the shoals. They killed only six fish out of better than 50 brought to net.

Mail From the Creel

Art Metz, Medford The barracuda lure is just a type of the feather jig. It is proving very effective in some waters, according to reports, but I haven't done much with it. Perhaps because I dislike switching from the spoon, having consistent luck with the spoon.

Walter Ferman, Brockton-Nantuxa yet taken on rod and reel. Ispwich Bay this season, but the first should be reported any day now. I'll pick Ben Crowninshield in his Honker, to land the first Young Kenney, who took the world's record tuna off Nova Scotia last season, told me he would wager that more tuna can be taken in Ipswich Bay, still-fishing and chumming, than have been taken any year trolling since the fishing started there. Cliff Farrand is inclined to agree with him and this season will likely see more chum fishing than has been done there.

Jordan's, Filene's Battle Tonight

Jordan's and Filene's baseball teams battle it out tonight to decide the winner of the first half of the Retail Store League, at 6:30 at Smith Field, Allston. Both teams have won four and lost one. Charlie Bird, who pitched a three-hit masterpiece over S. S. Pierce last week, will be in the mound for Jordan's, opposing Corone of Filene's.

Sluggers Ed Towle and Ed Shaughnessy, already responsible for several Jordan wins, will be in the latter's line-up.

NEWTON NET FINAL ON CARD

Top-seeded Paul Guibord, Melrose, was in the semi-final round of the Middlesex Bowl tennis tournament today after a hard quarter-final round session with George Goodwin, Harvard, at the Newton Tennis and Squash Club. Guibord edged Goodwin, 6-2, 2, 6-3.

In the women's singles, an all-local final was in order with Mercedes "Baba" Madden, Jamaica Plain, meeting Emily Lincoln, Brookline, top-seeded. In other men's quarter-finals, William Frothingham defeated George Williams, 6-2, 6-2; Fred Hunter won from George Roewen, Jr., 6-2, 6-1; Henry Kalik defeated Gordon Kitchin, 12-10, 7-5, and Al Stitt defeated O. Wilson, 6-2, 8-6.

Harlow Seen 'Out' After Next Season

TATTLE TALES: Dick Harlow, Harvard grid coach, who has been tiffing with Torbert Macdonald, captain-elect, may step down after next season, according to the Associated Press . . .

Another and richer big league club is eyeing Frank Lane, boss of the Reds' farm system . . . Bobby Dodd, the Georgia Tech backfield coach, hasn't been slipping up into Tennessee and snatching football prospects from right under the nose of his old boss, Major Bob Neyland, has he? . . . A Milwaukee syndicate is reported raising the dough to try to buy the Browns. Tommy O'Brien, the Ansonia (Ala.) high school back who was shown the sights of both Knoxville and Tuscaloosa, free gratis, has decided the Tennessee climate suits him . . . They say no fighter ever got a worse beating than Sam Sneed took on the 18th hole at Philly Saturday.

Al Schacht now is a glammer boy . . . He is going around all dressed up like a sore arm in a uniform of gold satin instead of the old Jim slinger and beaver hat . . . Manhattan Beach is trying to get Marshall Goldberg to take charge of athletic activities out there this summer.

Wilson Clicks Again

Let's look at Dave Wilson's Suffolk Downs score-sheet:

Six Daily Doubles in ten betting days. Thirty-two winners for the same period. A bankroll, playing each top Wilson horse $2 to win, and $2 on the Daily Double, of $199.20.

Dave came through yesterday with four winners, Branham in the first, Blob Volt in the third, Golden Fate in the fourth and Boston Pal in the sixth.

Without giving further detail of the King of Handicappers' victory streak, let us repeat only what racegoers everywhere are saying:

WIN WITH WILSON!

Wilson's selections appear exclusively every day in the Boston Evening American, and in the Sunday Advertiser.

California Picked to Sweep In 'Keepsie'

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 16 (INS)—It's California to sweep the river tomorrow.

At least, that is the way the odds are leaning as the 19 crews along Regatta Row taper off their training activities for Saturday's intercollegiate regatta.

"Key" Bright's eight has the best record to date of any crew that will line up at the stake boats. In time trials on the Hudson, the Bears have been clocked at 18:35, good time, considering the water conditions under which they rowed.

Al Ulrickson, Washington coach, was one of the coaches who endorsed the great California boat.

"They are the boys to beat—they have everything," the Huskies coach admitted.

If the California junior varsity and freshmen hold up to the performance they have shown on the Hudson, they too should glide by the judges' boat ahead of the pack.

The junior varsity is almost as big as the California varsity boat, and has shown up well in competition with the 19 crews along the Hudson, the two-mile course, less than three lengths behind the class varsity all season in trials. The junior varsity is held in awe by the other JV oarsmen along the river.

The best challenge to the Bears second boat is expected to come from Navy, which has looked well in the few spins it has taken on the river.

The freshman boat has only Washington and Cornell to worry about. In a California trial earlier in the week, the two-mile course was rowed in 9:15, exceptional time for a trial.

Dedham, Myopia Match Postponed

The opening of the historic annual Dedham-Myopia polo series scheduled for tomorrow has been postponed one week, to Saturday afternoon, June 24, at 3:30, at the Myopia Hunt Club's grass-carpeted field in Hamilton.

Interest in Saturday's intercollegiate championship final between Harvard and Yale at Dedham, N. J., is primarily responsible for the shifting of dates. Several local players plan to go to New Jersey to watch the match and attend the international exhibition match between United States and British teams on Sunday on Long Island.

St. Dominic's Ends Season With Victory

St. Dominic's Academy of Waverly climaxed a successful season by defeating the Our Lady of Mercy nine, 12 to 9. The game was featured by the steady pitching of Cox and the brilliant infield play of Gibson, Harnett and O'Brien, who pulled the game out of the fire several times with sparkling double plays.

The winning of this game gave St. Dominic's a record of six wins and three losses.

OR THE BRUINS-RANGERS HOCKEY game at the Garden next Winter—

"Here we are, fans, in the Old Depot. Your cheerful little earful, Eddie Shore is speaking. . . . Art Coulter's bringing the puck down ice an' . . . Pow! . . . well folks Art ain't carrying the puck no more . . . they're carrying Art. . . . Yeah! for repairs. . . . O Zat so! Scuse me folks. Murray Patrick just give me some lip . . . Biff! Well, Ha! ha! folks, that's the end of Cecil's lip. . . .

"Here I am folks in the penalty coop. Referee I've seen me sock Patrick . . . the game goes on with the Bruins short-handed. . . . Bang! . . . Pardon the interruption, folks. A fan just slapped me with his overhose and I give him the butt end of the old hockey right in the belly-bay. . . . Some cops is dragging the guy out. . . . Same to you, Lady! An old girl is giving me the blister now. . . . Yeah, you too, Madame!

"Here I go on the ice again. . . . Babe Pratt of the Rangers is bringing it down. . . . Craah! Ouch! . . . Nothing much, fans, just a two-inch gash over my right eye. . . . I'm taking it up now. . . . Sock! . . . that was Frank Boucher bouncing off my hip an' into the mezzanine. . . . Smack! Bang! . . . we're both in the mezzanine and letting each other have it. . . . Some fun, eh? . . . We win, 1 to 0, folks! See yuh when I get sewed up!"

OR ANY WRESTLING MATCH any time, anywhere—

"This is Mike-Murder's-me-dish Glutz, champion of the wuruld, except seven other guys, in me title bout with Pickpuss Demotroff. . . . He gets me in a head clasp. . . . Ow! Oooooo! Wow! De Agonies orful. . . . I pull handfuls of fuzz out his chest and. . . . Yee-oww! he hollers wit pain. . . . see! . . . Holler again Pickpuss, nearer de mike. . . . YEEE-OWWW!

"Now we is in a pretzel knot, all tangled up like spaghetti. . . . I got his foot an' he got mine. . . . we wrench an'. . . . Wujabeleev it, we is twisting ourruss foots, heh! heh! Wish't you could see the mugs, we're makin'. Fit to scare a dog out a boneyard. . . . 'Wooah! . . . I'm givin' him de airplane twirl. . . . round and round de mulberry bush, I heaves 'em into the press rows where he busts six typewriters, two cameras, three cigars and a pair of eyeglasses. He's woozy, or cumpin'. . . . Everybody's fightin' folks. . . . De bucket crews, 'n' de janitors, 'n' de fans. . . . 'n' here comes de Cops. . . . De Winnab an still champeen, Murder's-me-dish Glutz. I tank's yuh one 'n' all."

OR THE YALE-HARVARD FOOTBALL GAME at Cambridge next fall—

"Howdy, all! 'This is Torby MacDonald in the Harvard huddle on the Yale 45-yard line. I'm about to take the ball on a reverse spinner to the weak side. . . . Big Poison, we call the play. . . . We go into formation. Hip! Hip! . . . I get the snap back, spin and sneak through guards. . . . I'm up. . . . I'm tackled. . . . I'm loose. . . . What a gain. What a spine tingling thrill. What an autumn afternoon in this ivy-mantled bowl with thousands of football girls, coonskin escorts and loyal old alumni. . . . They're frantic. . . . I'm on the Yale 20. . . . the 15. . . . 10. . . . 5 and Touchdown!

TRAINER
RETIRES

BERLIN, Md., June 16 (AP)—The blue and gold racing silks of Samuel D. Riddle have been doffed almost simultaneously by War Admiral and his trainer, George Conway.

Riddle announced today the long-visited trainer whose pet answer to dopsters was "Well, you can never tell about a horse," had already retired to a cottage at Oceanport, N. J., compelled to leave the track by illness after spending 30 of his 62 years within scent of his charges.

He'll probably be around at the Belmont track Monday when the Admiral, also incapacitated for racing by a sprained foot, takes his last trip to retirement at Riddle's stud farm, near Lexington, Ky.

Riddle's new trainer is Joe Farrell, who at the age of 40 has been with the Riddle colors for 15 years, the last five as foreman under Conway. Almost the direct opposite of his ex-boss, Farrell is little, wiry, with a quick walk and a businesslike mien.

Conway considered War Admiral his mark in life. Man of War, who trained at Riddle's Farm here when Conway was foreman of the stables, was "also a good horse," to him.

Soft spoken and gentlemanly despite his laconic answers, Conway trained the Admiral into winnings computed by Riddle at $373,240.

Pepper to Get
Harness, Too:
How About Hay?

ST. LOUIS, June 16 (AP)—President Ford Frick of the National League will attend the celebration here Sunday in honor of Pepper Martin.

"The latest addition to the 'farm' gift to be presented the veteran Cardinal is a set of harness for the two brood mares St. Louis fans are getting him. He'll also receive a plow, a pedigreed heagle, electric grindstone, hayrake, electric churn and two pedigreed rabbits."

Martin was injured in New York June 3.

Fletcher
Traded
To Buccs

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 16—Elbie Fletcher today was a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates, having been traded by the Boston Bees in a deal which brought Bill Schuster, shortstop of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League, and an unannounced sum of cash, to the Boston National League club.

President Bob Quinn and Manager Casey Stengel of the Bees, put through the deal a few hours before the deadline on trading.

Schuster, a 24-year-old Buffalo boy, stands five feet, eight inches, and weighs 165 pounds, and is highly praised in the International loop. He is well known to Canadian fans.

A year ago this spring he was at training camp with the Pirates and was sent to Montreal of International League, where he led in batting for a while. When Rabbit Maranville went out as manager of the Montreal team the Pirates sent Schuster to Toronto.

Stengel in announcing the deal said he saw no reason in carrying two first basemen after Buddy Hassett had won the position with his batting.

Stengel went on to praise Elbie and said he thought Fletcher would do well at Forbes Field, where he did his best hitting.

It is likely that Elbie will play regular with the Pirates in as much as Gus Suhr has been shipping.

Fletcher got his major league start when he won a Boston Evening American contest which gave him a tryout with the Bees in 1934. He played for Harrisburg that year and then went to Wilkes-Barre where he batted .365. From there the Bees who were then the Braves sent him to Buffalo where he hit .343.

In 1937 he came up to Boston and has been in the majors since, batting .247 in 1937 and .272 last year.

He is a native of Milton. The deal was engineered after the Bees belted out a victory over the Pirates, 6-5, in 11 innings.

A ringing double with two out, followed by 37-year-old Johnny Cooney's timely single clinched the tilt.

It was the sixth straight setback for the Buccs and left them just a single game ahead of the seventh place Bees.

Vanderbilt Yacht
Wins in Britain

HARWICH, Eng., June 16 (AP)—Harold S. Vanderbilt's 12-meter yacht, "Vim," scored her third straight victory and her second in as many days in a 24-mile race today.

The American boat won by two minutes in three hours, two minutes, 54 seconds.

Shangay Lily
In 'Rock' Classic

SALEM, N. H., June 16—Shangay Lily, the seven-year-old bay mare which won the $10,000 Newmarket Handicap at Delaware Park last Saturday, will move into the New England next month, to run in the stake races which spangle the 18-6 summer meeting at Rockingham Park.

Shangay Lily, rated as the greatest mare in South America when she was brought to this country, is living up to expectations. Two weeks ago, she won a handicap at Belmont Park and last week in the $10,000 Newmarket, she turned back Jacala, Handicapper, Lady Maryland, Sassy Beauty, and a band of hard-hitting fillies to take her place among the leading ladies of the turf.

More than 225 thoroughbreds are already housed at the track, working over the racing strip every morning, and moving into Suffolk Downs afternoons to win race after race. Last week 30 thoroughbreds quartered here were shipped to Suffolk and 18 of them ran promptly to the winner's circle.

Among the prominent owners and trainers already on the grounds are J. Yancy Christmas, J. Melanson, George Burch, Robbie Robertson, F. C. Travis, Joseph Pepp, Belmont Evans and M. R. Fish, and within the next few weeks new stables will start flocking into the Rock from all parts of the East to provide the finest race meeting in the history of the track.

Don McNeill Enters
French Net Final

PARIS, June 16 (AP)—Don McNeill of Oklahoma City today defeated Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., to enter the final of the French hard courts tennis championships against Bobby Riggs of Chicago, America's No. 1 ranking amateur. The scores were 6-2, 7-5, 7-8, 6-2.

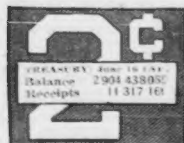

Riggs scored a straight set triumph yesterday over Otto Szigeti of Hungary. McNeill, ranked No. 13 in the U. S., and Riggs will meet Sunday.

20 to 1 Shot Wins
Big Ascot Sprint

ASCOT, Eng., June 16 (AP)—F. W. Winnet's four-year-old American, a 20 to 1 shot, today won the six furlongs of the Wokingham stakes from the Countess of Hainault's Antelope. The latter, noted at 100 to 8, was in front of H. Leader's Shalflott, held at 100 to 6.
